

As a voter and a XM radio listner, I will exercise my right to not vote for any Congressman or Senator who buckles under the pressure from NAB. NAB should be pushing their companies that they represent to improve their products, rather than try to stifle competition through a legislative means. Shame on them. No other radio station in the Washington DC area provides up to the minute weather and traffic the way XM radio does. This should be applauded, not stifled.